

WHERE THE YESHIVA MEETS THE UNIVERSITY:

Join in a special day of study with four scholars who illustrate how traditional and academic study methodology can enhance our ability to derive meaning from the Bible.

9:30 am - 9:40 am: Opening Remarks: The encounter of tradition and academy in Bible Study

Rabbi Hayyim Angel: Rabbi at Congregation Shearith Israel and Bible Faculty at Yeshiva University

9:45 am - 10:30 am: The Eighth Day and the Mishkan: Peshat Parshanut and Scholarship

Rabbi Nathaniel Helfgot: Chair of the Departments of Bible and Jewish Thought at Yeshivat Chovevei Torah

10:35 am - 11:20 am: Joseph and Potiphar's Wife: Making Sense of a Difficult Text

Professor James Kugel: Bible Faculty at Bar-Ilan University

11:25 am - 12:10 pm: The Tower of Babel: From Confusion to Clarity

Rabbi Hayyim Angel: Rabbi at Congregation Shearith Israel and Bible Faculty at Yeshiva University

12:15 pm - 1:00 pm: Naomi, Ruth and Boaz: Finding Their Biblical Voices

Mrs. Rachel Friedman: Chair of Tanakh Studies at the Drisha Institute

Light Refreshments Served.

Co-sponsored by Congregation Shearith Israel and the Institute for Jewish Ideas and Ideals (jewishideas.org)

Date: Sunday, February 5

Time: 9:30 am - 1:00 pm

Prices: This event is free

Contact: 212 - 873 - 0300 x 225 or Miriam.leichtling@shearithisrael.org

REGISTER IN ADVANCE AT WWW.CSILEARNING.COM

