Rabbi Marc D. Angel

Shalom, and best wishes. Here are a few items for your attention.

CAMPUS FELLOWS: We are currently taking applications for the Campus Fellows program for the coming academic year. Campus Fellows receive a stipend, as well as some funds for program expenses. Campus Fellows are expected to arrange 2 programs per semester, dealing with issues relating to an intellectually vibrant, compassionate and inclusive Orthodox Judaism.
If you would like to apply, please go to our homepage at jewishideas.org. There is an application form on the bottom right of the page. For more information, please contact our new director of the Campus Fellows program, Rabbi Daniel Braune Friedman daniel@jewishideas.org; or Raif Melhado, raif@jewishideas.org
This is a terrific opportunity to learn, grow, lead, build community.

BOOK OFFERS: This is a reminder that University Network members may request a free copy of Rabbi Marc D. Angel's new book of short stories, The Crown of Solomon and Other Stories; and/or his novel, The Search Committee. If you'd like either or both, please email mdangel@jewishideas.org, being sure to include your mailing address.

CHANGES OF ADDRESS: As the academic year comes to a close, students often change their mailing addresses. If you want to update your address, please let us know by going to info@jewishideas.org If you are graduating and are no longer a university student, please let us know this as well. Although you are no longer eligible to be a member of the University Network, you are welcome to join the Institute as a regular member.
