JEWISH MINDS FOR HUMAN KIND--Class with Rabbi Marc D. Angel

View PDF

JEWISH MINDS FOR HUMAN KIND

Class with Rabbi Marc D. Angel

Tuesday mornings, beginning October 9, 2018

At the Institute's office in the Apple Bank building, 2100 Broadway, mezzanine

Bank opens 8:30; Class begins 8:40—coffee, tea and Danish are provided

We will be studying the writings of modern Jewish thinkers and writers who have had a significant impact on society at large. Among them are Rabbi Joseph B. Soloveitchik, Lionel Trilling, Ayn Rand, Elias Canetti, Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel, Isaiah Berlin, Saul Bellow, Betty Friedan, Simone Veil and Elie Wiesel. The class will focus on the Jewish components in their work, and also on how their writings have impacted on modern culture.

The class is offered free of charge, as a service of the Institute for Jewish Ideas and Ideals.

ADVANCE REGISTRATION IS REQUESTED: If you wish to join the class, please let us know by emailing mdangel@jewishideas.org