I Dread Going to Shul

View PDF

Daniel Schwartz, is an attorney in Rockland County, New York, where he lives with his wife and three children. He has been an avocational hazzan for 25 years. He studied at Yeshiva University's Belz School of Jewish Music as well as with private voice and music teachers. This article appears in issue 9 of Conversations, the journal of the Institute for Jewish Ideas and Ideals.