Revisiting Sex Selection in Jewish Law

View PDF

Rabbi Weitzman is the Institute Director of PUAH, an Israeli-based organization devoted to addressing the medical and halakhic concerns of individuals experiencing infertility. Rabbi Weitzman is also a Visiting Associate Professor at Albert Einstein School of Medicine. David Harari is completing his Masters of Science in Bioethics at the Union Graduate College-Mount Sinai School of Medicine Bioethics Program (New York, NY). He intends to begin medical school in Fall 2010. This article appears in issue 6 of Conversations, the journal of the Institute for Jewish Ideas and Ideals.